

Objective

To support my career and family by creating income using existing skills and qualifications.

Being a professional performer and athlete for nearly 30 years has been invaluable in developing interpersonal abilities, managing myself in stressful environments while maintaining fine motor skills simultaneously. Currently I need an increased income to support my wife and daughter, from July to October, during which time I will be the sole earner.

Skills

I am highly involved with health and fitness activities, which include martial arts, a background in Theatre, Film, Professional Dance, Music, Drawing, Design, and Sports Remedial Massage. I excel in customer service and making that extra effort that shows how I value the phrase "If it's worth doing, it's worth doing well."

My years of work as an actor, dancer, doorman, restaurant manager, and Front of House manager prove that I am friendly, presentable, dedicated, and customer focussed.
